Call 211 Finger Lakes Collaborative
Trained call counselors help you find answers to non-emergency questions by directing you to the most appropriate service providers for your needs. 2-1-1 offers referrals for emergency food, shelter, clothing, crisis counseling, substance abuse issues, employment, financial and legal issues, physical and mental health needs, and more. If you need help, just ask! Call 2-1-1 or 1-877-FLNY2-1-1 (1-877-356-9211), accessible 24 hours a day, seven days a week, including holidays, with Spanish-speaking call counselors and Language Line Translation Services available. The twelve counties include: Allegany, Cayuga, Chemung, Livingston, Monroe, Ontario, Schuyler, Seneca, Steuben, Tompkins, Wayne & Yates Counties. There are three call center sites - a hub site and two partner sites - collaborating to bring 2-1-1 access to the Finger Lakes Region in New York.

Adoption

A Parent for Every Child
A Diligent Recruitment project sponsored by the New York state Office of Children and Family Services and funded through a federal Adoption Opportunity grant. Our goal is to provide permanency through kinship care, adoption, or guardianship for children whose parental rights have been terminated and who have spent several years in residential care without a viable family resource.

Camp Get- A-Way
Camp Wyomoco in Varysburg/Camp DeWolfe in Wading River
Camp Get-A-Way is a not-for-profit organization dedicated to strengthening and supporting families. Located in Wyoming County and Peconic Dunes on Long Island, Camp Get-A-Way offers families of children diagnosed with a social, emotional or behavioral disorder the opportunity to participate in recreational and skill-building activities in a summer camp atmosphere. Children and families learn new skills, gain self-confident and have fun. It is a supportive learning environment in a traditional camp, using the “Learn, Use, Teach” model. Families can hike, swim, canoe, kayak, and participate in other traditional camp activities. At the same time, parents have the opportunity to receive support, strengthen parenting skills. www.cgaw.org

Focus on the Children
The Children's Fund is dedicated to meeting the needs of children and their families when other resources are not available or are insufficient. Children through high school age will be considered for assistance grants with the emphasis being placed on the needs of preschool and elementary school age children. Parents and families are eligible for assistance when such aid results in support, security, and opportunity for the children of the family. Priority will be given to one-time-only grants that help children and families through a difficult period.
