Community Based Intervention (CBI) Services

Community Based Intervention Services provide intensive, outreach casework services to youth and families living in Yates County. Services include crisis intervention, family stabilization, coordination of and linkage to community resources, advocacy, and short-term counseling.

ABOUT THE SERVICE

Community Based Intervention (CBI) services are designed to increase family stability and increase the functioning of youth served, thereby maintaining the child at home and in their community.

CBI Services provide casework services to youth and their families. Services include:

- linkage and service coordination to community resources to provide support and address needs across life domains
- crisis intervention
- transportation and other assistance to ensure medical and mental health appointments including specialists are accessible to the youth and family
- family support and advocacy in the educational, medical, mental health, legal and other systems

Community Based Intervention Services provide an array of mental health services to youth age 6 through 20 and their families. Eligible youth must have a current mental health diagnosis and be referred/accepted via the Yates County SPOA.
